

Coming Soon! Important IUL product updates

AIG Life & Retirement is now Corebridge Financial

The National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) has adopted the Revised Actuarial Guideline 49-A (AG 49-A) which will go into effect for any IUL policy sold on or after May 1, 2023. As a result, there will be some updates to our IUL products.

Here's a quick view of what's changing:

- This update only impacts illustrations, not how the life insurance product operates or performs
- Illustrated performance of Volatility Control Index (VCI) accounts will be reduced to similar levels as current S&P 500 index accounts
- Caps and participation rates are not changing
- There are some interest rate changes in the in-force products to reflect the current market environment
- NEW! Max Accumulator+ III will now be available in California.

Our IUL products provide your clients with valuable features to help move their financial futures forward and help secure a better life ahead.
